

For those not online

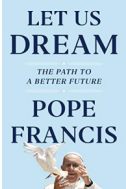

For those of you who are unable to join us online, please refer to our Lent prayer booklets and the #LiveLent book for daily reflections throughout the season of preparation for Easter.

Or why not look at some of the books that we will be using over this period.

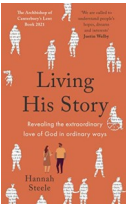

Candles in the Dark: Faith, Hope and Love in a Time of Pandemic by Rowan Williams.

We will be looking at this book during our daily blogs.

Let Us Dream: The Path to a Better Future by Pope Francis.

The two PCCs and the staff team will be looking at this book as we look ahead to a post-COVID church.

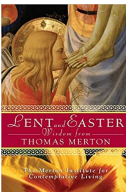

Living His Story by Hannah Steele, The Archbishop of Canterbury's 2021 Lent book

The #LiveLent 2021 reflections are based on this book.

Celtic Lent by David Cole.

40 Days of reflections from Celtic spirituality which Matt will be looking at on a Wednesday morning.

Lent and Easter Wisdom from Thomas Merton.

The Rule of Life group will be looking at this on a Tuesday evening.

All of these books are available for purchase from Amazon or as ebooks on Kindle.

THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND

Ash Wednesday—17th February

Ash Wednesday marks the start of Lent and we will be holding a simple online service at 10.30am.

Join us LIVE via the New Creation Facebook Page : <https://www.facebook.com/NewCreationChurches/> or catch up later on Facebook, via the New Creation website: <http://www.newcreationchurches.org.uk/> or New Creation YouTube Channel : <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCXn34qIXIXBeOAmO1M1KbBw/>

#LiveLent 2021  THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND

This year #LiveLent will be based on The Archbishop of Canterbury's 2021 Lent book 'Living His Story'. There will be some booklets available for those we know who find it difficult to get online delivered to you over the coming week, and a few copies available in either St. Andrew's, Banwell or Congresbury.

If you do have access to technology, the same daily reflections can be obtained either as a downloadable app on your smart phone or tablet or as a daily email.

Download the App from the App Store or Google Play store or sign up at www.churchofengland.org for the daily email reflections.
